

ACTRA's John Drainie Award for Distinguished Contribution to Broadcasting

In 1966, John Drainie, one of Canada's most distinguished and well known actors, died at the age of 50. In 1968, ACTRA established the annual John Drainie Award to commemorate one of its best-loved members.

The Drainie Award recipient is chosen each year by the previous recipients. ACTRA's John Drainie Award will be presented as part of the Banff Rockie Awards at the Banff Television Festival in Banff, Alberta, in June 2003.

The John Drainie award is a bronze medal portrait of John Drainie by renowned Canadian sculptor and medallist Dora de Pedery-Hunt.
