2006 ACTRA John Drainie Award for Distinguished Contribution to Broadcasting

Know a Canadian broadcaster that deserves to be recognized? Send his or her name along for consideration for the 2006 ACTRA John Drainie Award! This presented annually to a person who has made a distinguished contribution to Canadian broadcasting in the tradition of John Drainie.

Drainie was only 50 when he died in 1966, but he had already had a legacy as one of Canada's most celebrated and well-known actors. Two years after his death ACTRA established the annual award to commemorate one of its best-loved members.

A jury of previous recipients and members of the ACTRA National Council will choose this year's honouree. The Award will be presented at the Banff World Television Festival in June.

Past recipients of the John Drainie Award are:
