Brothers and Sisters:

On behalf of the members of NABET 700 CEP, please accept our unequivocal support in your quest for a fair deal for the members of your great union.

We dwell in turbulent times for our industry, and sometimes develop idiosyncrasies that can impede our ability to speak with a unified voice. At this point in our sectoral history we need partnerships between labour and employers that will help to further develop our industry, not the acrimony and mistrust caused by reckless demands.

Should your best efforts to secure an equitable agreement for your members be stalled, please know that our members support your cause, because at the end of the day, it is a cause common to all of us.

In solidarity,

Jonathan Ahee
