

Lisa Wegner

“Lisa Wegner is one of the most remarkable natural talents we have met in a generation of performers- she is sensitive, stunning talented and focused. Besides, she’s a great person and a total fun to work with.”

-Teresa Sears & David Switzer

A Brief Biography:

Lisa Wegner is a tireless producer and superb actress. Her acting credits include Voices In The Night, Sirens, Jefferson Street, The Long Kiss Good Night, Bound For Freedom, Hockey Night, The Golden Voice, The Assignment, New Jersey Turnpikes, Seeds of Doubt, Adam and Smoke, Kicking the Habit Maximum! Maximum! and Earth Final Conflict, On The Line and The Gavin Crawford Show.

In the Canadian theater scene Lisa has played leads in Rashomon and Dr. Faustus (both with the nationally acclaimed British touring company English Suitcase Theatre). Most recently in Toronto: Rank and File, Watch Your Mouth, Rockship 5 and Schmegeggy (her inaugural performance with a sketch comedy troupe). Lisa won a NYC Festival Best Actress Award in 1999 for her lead performance in Last Tango in Transylvania.

In July 2001 Lisa’s Production company Mighty Brave Productions is producing The Lark in which she will fulfill her lifetime fantasy to play Joan of Arc. On her producing slate are two Television serials West off 69, The Procrasti-Gamers and a feature film Zoot Suit Ryan.

As well as producing and performing, Lisa has just published her second poem in “The Silence Within” a coffee table book of emerging Canadian Poets.
