

Jon Eakes

Do not offer me an audition. I am not an actor.

Consider the impact of cameo appearances of Canada's most visually recognised Home Improvement expert: Hanging the new nameplate on the office door; walking by to fix the toilet; inspecting the house about to be bought (perhaps exposing the attempted cover-up of construction faults); the hardware store clerk.....

Canada's leading TV Home Improvement expert since 1978.
Mr. Chips; Renovation Zone; The House Hotline; the Weather Network.
Currently on HGTV Canada: Just Ask Jon Eakes – 20 times a week.
I teach construction in both English and French.
