I have been producing plays since 1990 under the canopy of my own company, "Red Hen Productions". Many of the plays have been my own but I have also produced others such as "Chicks" by Grace McKeane and a revue of the music of Kurt Weill. In conjunction with the Masterworks Festivals of MTC, I have produced a show of Brecht's poetry accompanied by jazz guitar, "The Maids" by Jean Genet, "The American Dream" by Albee, "Here Before You Eugene O'Neill" by Wheeler, "Albertine in Five Times" by Tremblay, and "After Magritte" by Stoppard and "Blue Kettle" by Caryl Churchill. In addition I have been active as an ACTRA member in several movies and television works. Also I am an Equity member in good standing and have adjudicated arts festivals in Manitoba and Ontario.
