

Peter McCowatt

pamccowatt@gmail.com

Reels/website: www.mccowatt.com

Education

English Specialist Degree – University of Toronto

Drama Minor – University of Toronto.

Experience

Stand-up comedy — clubs throughout N. America.

Written and performed National CBC comedy radio show – The Norm (60 episodes).

Voiced and principle performer in over a thousand commercials — awards: Andy, Mobius, Crystal and Gold Marketing.

Hosted and written own show for The Movie Network – Prime Time Live (sketch comedy and interviews).

Created and Hosted Pete’s Home Movies for TMN (video interviews with Hollywood directors, writers and stars in their homes).

Performed with Jim Henson, playing the Two-Headed Monster and various other muppets — Follow That Bird.

Performed and written 128 episodes of the kid’s television show Treehouse.

Lead Alien character “Phillipe” in the series Lost on Earth a USA network original production – produced by Quincy Jones and David Saltzman. (executive produced by Paul Fusco (ALF) and David Steinberg).

Performed” in a variety of stage plays, television shows and films. (Most recent 2021, Turner and Hooch - Disney)

Written novel Shakin’ E – A fantasy Thriller about an ad executive possessed by the spirit of Elvis.

Created, written and performed a satirical comedy special for XM Satellite Radio “Stan Noble Presents: Comedy For Short Attention Spans.”