

Kent W. Ford, B.L.A. (Hon's), C.L.D.

Mr. Ford's career in Landscape Architecture began in 1986, when he received an Honors Bachelor of Landscape Architecture degree from the University of Guelph, Ontario. Kent apprenticeship period included commercial and municipal projects such as the CBC Broadcast Centre and Metro Hall Plaza in Toronto and Universal Studios Theme Park in Orlando, Florida.

Kent's diverse residential design practice includes notable Toronto projects including the renovation of the former George Gardiner Estate and garden designs for Kurt Browning and Marilyn Denis.

This led to beginning in 1997, Kent became an expert guest on CityTV's Cityline Program. His performances included both taped before and after segments of his projects, that were performed without a script and live appearances on the show where he performed 'show and tells' of products and took live audience questions. These performances continued monthly from 1997 to 2005.

Kent also made other guest appearances on HGTV's Garden Architecture and Savoir Faire.

A demo video of his CityTV Cityline video work can be found within the media section of his website www.kentforddesign.com / inthe media/videos/ “ Kent Ford on Robinwood, Eastborne and Broadoak Crescent Landscaping “
