

ÉVELYNE MORISSETTE

ACTRESS/HOST/COACH

ACTRA: AM-20734

DESCRIPTION

I was born and raised in Montreal, Canada. I moved to England at the age of 18 to learn English and study theatre arts. I graduated from Park Lane College with a BTEC National Diploma in Performing Arts in 2004, and had a chance to work with Marco Sanges in London and Kevin Reynolds in Leeds for portraying the book "Naked City". I also did a few musicals and toured across Yorkshire.

After coming back to my homeland and worked for the music industry for a while -where I hosted music awards ceremonies and festivals- I moved to San Francisco in 2007 where I did improvisation and carried on studying in the field, and did a lot of short films and commercials. I starred in a Bollywood movie called "Love Aaj Kal". I moved to Vancouver and attended Vancouver Film School, from August 2010-2011.

Upon my graduation in 2011, after losing my best friend and mentor that was my father, I moved back to Montreal. Since then I continuously attend various workshops to keep me updated in the field. I gave birth to my son Léolo in March 2014. He was recently diagnosed with ASD, and has been my main source of inspiration ever since I held him for the first time.
