Enter into a positive work environment where my skill set could be utilized to the full extent and a potential growth within the company.

Experience

BACKGROUND ACTOR, INSPIRATIONAL TALENT AGENCY, VANCOUVER, BC – 2015-PRESENT

I am a UBCP member. As a background actor I wanted to go into a field I felt I could look into expanding my wardrobing experience. The film industry was a place I could venture my happy social energy on set and cultivate my interest as a wardrobe stylist via networking. I love being in front of the camera and being part of the creative aspect of the vision of the producer.

WARDROBE CONSULTANT, FLIPNOUT WARDROBE CONSULTATIONS, VANCOUVER, BC – 2011-PRESENT

Being the trade of customer service and working with several companies as a clothing buyer and managing shops. Has opened my creativity on wardrobing individual. I have a keen eye to detail and my clients will attest to the journey I walked with them to date. The process of start to finish with each client is very rewarding and I take pride in what I do with each and every client.

FLIPNOUT LAUNDRY SERVICES, VANCOUVER, BC – 2015-PRESENT

This is a company I had started up that possessed as a zen place for my recharging of my week. This was a place that brought joy to me as a youngster and I had an opportunity to reestablish this joy to my present life. I deal with RMT clinics dealing with 4 RMT's doing their linens once a week. I am detail to what each individual wants and it brings joy to my current life changes.

OWNER/BUYER, G SPOT CLOTHING COMPANY, VANCOUVER, BC – 2006-2011

Being in the industry of fashion majority of my working career. I finally had the opportunity and willingness to pursue my own clothing shop. Being customer oriented driven. Having contacts locally and abroad help to cultivate the looks my clients were looking for and bring in unique designer lines to keep the market in Vancouver up to speed. I did my homework on upcoming lines and trends to keep the shopping experience as interesting for my client base.
