Alexis Thériault

Alexis Thériault is a Canadian actor born and raised in Dieppe, New Brunswick. Ever since he was a little boy, Alexis watched movies continuously and has always been passionate about cinema and theatre, as it is a world of infinite possibilities that nourishes his artistic and creative nature.

When he was 13 years old, Alexis was chosen to be part of a TV show called “Belle-Baie”. Being on the set, working with the actors, producers and cameramen was by far one of his favourite work experiences and made him fall in love with the craft of acting.

Alexis has always found it fascinating to embrace a character and explore and inhabit other dimensions of another human being. Through this adventure, you can kindle the character’s evolution and at the same time, grow as a person. It also allows you to project and share a wide array of emotions with an audience. This has always fascinated Alexis

When he was 17 years old, he joined the Drama Club at his high school. Even though it was his first year in the Drama Club, Alexis was given the main role of the play and had the opportunity to present this play at the New – Brunswick Youth Theatre Festival.

After secondary school, Alexis studied three years in Business Administration at the University of Moncton where he made the dean’s list for achieving a 4,10 average. At the time, Alexis considered pursuing a career in Law, as it would’ve allowed him to help people in need and bring them justice. Ultimately, he decided to enrol at the Toronto Film School to pursue his dream of being an actor.

Alexis has been in several short films and plays, a graduate of the Toronto Film School and represented by Glickman Alexander Talent Agency.
