Summary

I am in my early 20's and have discovered a passion for stunt work and acting. El Chicano (written by Ben Bray and Joe Carnahan) is the first project I have worked on and wrapped this September (2017) in Calgary, Alberta. Working on set and learning stunt choreography for El Chicano was a great experience for me and I want to build on that experience moving forward with a career in the business.

I have spent all my life playing sports, such as hockey, soccer, boxing and running. Developing my acting and stunt work portfolio is now my primary focus. I am not camera shy, and I am not deterred by long hours and hard laborious work. My goal is to continue to learn and grow my experience within the industry.
