

Junko Wruck

jswruck@gmail.com

Profile

Proven abilities in acting, leadership, and organization. Versatile and ambitious, I am currently searching for roles that would allow me to grow as an actor and provide me any opportunities with a scope for personal initiative and professional development.

Work Experience

- Background, Hourglass Vancouver, Canada, 2022-present. AppleTV Series. Played the role of a passenger on a plane during season one of Hourglass.
- Background, Shogun Vancouver, Canada, 2021-22. F/X Network. Disney Production. Worked in various roles as an extra during the first season of Shogun. Some of my roles included being an Osaka Merchandiser, Ajiro Villager and Busho's Wife.
- Background, Motherland Vancouver, Canada, 2021. Freeform Network. Disney Production. Was part of the background team during the making of season three of Motherland. My role for Motherland was as an Army General.
- Stand-In, Nagoya TV, Nagoya, Japan, 1990-1992. Responsible for taking place of lead actors during rehearsals, lighting setup, camera blocking and was part of the secondary team.
- Film & Television Production Assistant, Nagoya TV, Nagoya, Japan, 1990-1992. Worked in various production positions, gaining experience in all aspects of the production of film and television programs.

Skills

- Computer, MS Office, Adobe InDesign/Photoshop/Lightroom 20+ years
- Translation/Interpreter, Japanese/English 10+ years
- Reads, writes and speaks Japanese and English fluently

Education

- United Performers' Studio (UPS Academy), Tokyo, Japan, 2022-present
- Rogue West Actor Studio, Vancouver, Canada, 2021
- Japanese Translation Course, Simon Fraser University English, 2021
- Import & Export Business Honors Diploma, Sprott Shaw College, Canada, 1999
- Interior Design & Decoration Graduate, Chelsea College of Arts, London, England, 1997
- Sociology Degree, Kinjyou Gakuin College, Japan, 1990