

Robert Malcolm

Occupation: Journalist/ Performance Artist

Born: 1965 Manchester, England

Rob Malcolm studied business and liberal arts in California at Gavilan College in Gilroy and at Cal State Hayward in Hayward California.

He also graduated with a BA in Political Science from Concordia University in Montreal Quebec.

A versatile athlete he plays baseball, football, basketball, soccer while also being an avid outdoorsman. Malcolm was awarded a partial football scholarship to Hayward State University and was later drafted to the Hamilton Tiger Cats of the Canadian Football League.

Besides being a former professional athlete, his other career choices saw him working in Politics as a political researcher and as a bank manager for a major Canadian chartered bank. He left the banking industry to start his production company pursue acting and work as an entertainment reporter on Calgary's Channel 7 "The Movie Show".

While at Concordia University he hosted and co produced "I On Montreal" a life style entertainment show on cable. This was followed with numerous internships and led into his current career in Television.

Rob Malcolm spent time as a sports anchor and reporter for CKVR channel 3 in Barrie.

Rob later moved south of the border spending 2 years with NBC WDIV channel 4 in Detroit as weekend sports anchor and fulltime reporter.

Currently Rob can be seen hosting traffic and sports while co hosting with the morning team on Toronto Today the morning show on Toronto 1

<http://www.toronto1.tv/> on the dial at channel 15 in Toronto.

Representation By: Rachel Neville-Fox
racheln@canadafilm.com