Education: Graduated in Interior Architecture and Furniture Design.

Experience: Cabinet maker, Carpenter, Draughtsman, Puppeteer.

In his native Holland Johan received his training as a Cabinet maker, Carpenter and Draughtsman and graduated in Interior Architecture and Furniture Design at the Royal Academy of Fine Arts in The Hague.

In Canada Johan turned his childhood hobby, puppetry, into his profession.

After working with several other puppet companies, Johan and Alison Vandergun founded Lampoon Puppettheatre in 1972. Johan has remained the Artistic Director since the start of the company. Johan performs in the plays, has designed and constructed most of Lampoon's productions and directed several shows. Over its more than 25 years Lampoon Puppettheatre has toured extensively within Canada and outside. Lampoon Puppettheatre has represented Canadian puppetry at more than 60 international festivals in more than 25 different countries garnering several awards.

Television credits vary and include shows as the "Waterville Gang", guest appearances on "Mr. Dressup" and several of the Muppet specials.
