

RACHELLE JEANTY

Was born in Queens, New York in 1968. She grew up in Montreal, graduated in Leisure Studies at Concordia University and took her first steps in the world of music with the band Tango-Tango, winners of «L'Empire des futures stars», thus acquiring her first experience in studio recording, touring and television appearances.

Artistic Profile:

- Following her performance at Saint-Denis Theatre with MARIO PELCHAT, Rachelle was discovered by Music Director Claude «Mego» Lemay. She was then hired as a back-vocalist for CÉLINE DION and from 1995 – 1997, she performed in the world most famous theatres such as THE MADISON SQUARE GARDEN in New York, the BERCY in Paris, the BUDOKAN in Tokyo, the CENTRE MOLSON in Montreal, etc. During that time, she appeared with Celine Dion on well-known American television shows such as David Letterman, Rosie O'Donnell, Jay Leno, etc.
- After successfully touring the world for two years with Celine Dion, Rachelle decided to pursue her career in Paris, France. She became a renowned back vocalist and choreographer, working with outstanding artists such as Johnny Halliday, Véronique Sanson and Eddy Mitchell, both on album and live performances.
- In Paris, Rachelle became "Intermittente du Spectacle" (Union Member) which allowed her to access the worlds of publicity and jingles, featuring among others, jingles for "Barbie", "Total" and "Supercroix".
- In 2003, she was offered the position of vocalist in "La Nouba", one of the Cirque du Soleil productions. Instead, she decided to come back to Canada. Since her return, Rachelle has made herself well known on the Montreal musical scene.
- Since the Spring of 2005, Rachelle has become the new voice of Radio Rock Détente's jingles.
- As a Solo artist, Rachelle is the winner of Radio Rythme FM's contest Le plus beau rythme du Québec 2005, thanks to her own title "Retiens-moi", co-written with Harvey Mason, Jr., producer of Justin Timberlake and close collaborator of Whitney Houston and Michael Jackson.
- Rachelle was the opening act for Gino Vanelli Canada Day Concert in LaSalle, Quebec. She has also been touring with Bob Walsh as back vocalist and sharing the stage with him, performing outstanding duos.
- Currently based in Montreal, Rachelle speaks English, French, German and Créole.

Has Worked With:

- Céline Dion, Mario Pelchat, Johnny Halliday, Véronique Sanson, Eddy Mitchell and Bob Walsh.

Web Site: www.rachellejeanty.com

E-mail: racql2000@yahoo.ca