Other Influential Life Experience

“ I have traveled extensively. I lived in Africa for a year. Six of those months in Zimbabwe experiencing the dynamics of a rich and politically troubled culture. “

“ I grew up performing in musicals, plays and choirs. As a young adult I traveled with a children’s theatre company for a year in Newfoundland. Fourteen years later, I enrolled in the theatre program at Capilano College for two years. Now, ten years after, I have decided to pursue the field of acting as a career. My natural talent to command a presence, make people laugh, and understand and interpret the dynamics of different human characters; has shown performing to be a destined vocation. “
