BUBBA SEAN

That brings us to the Cryogenics lead role, the audience captivator, the Heresy mascot, Bubba Sean a.k.a. Doomsday other wise known as “The Narcoleptic Heretic”. Born in central Toronto, Oct 30th, 1977 as Sean Bradshaw. As a child Bubba Sean's parents (whom) were club owners as well as DJ's and his sister who is also a musician, had a huge musical impact on his life. Raised with deep roots in reggae, hip-hop and the classic rock of the early eighties, Bubba Sean had formulated a style of his own. With his predominant figure and un comparable stage show presence, Bubba Sean has been the front man in Heresy Entertainment since the days of the now defunct “NorthSide Sound” project, (Northern Enlightenment EP and the Rhymelinez 12”) released early 1999. This hip-hop Giant has been performing on stage since back in early 1992 with The “Ballyhoo Crew” where he started as the groups “hype man”. Bubba Sean's experience as an emcee does not stop there, he has also hosted the “Souldiggers show on CKLN's 88.1 FM” and has performed as many if not more live shows then any emcee in Canada at this present time. Bubba Sean has entertained some of the largest and critical crowds in the Toronto Urban scene like the annual “Urban Music Week” at CNE 2000, Phem Phat's “Honey Jam '98”, and “Graffiti Expo '98”. With his aggressive at times humorous flow, Bubba Sean continues to be the backbone of Cryogenics and Heresy Entertainment. He is the original crowd pleaser, so when it comes to stage performances Bubba Sean has an unrivaled capability to have the crowd totally mesmerized and following his every move. Influenced by some of hip hops greatest emcees such as Redman, KRS and Wu Tang, Bubba Sean brings us back to the real raw elements of rap. SEAN has developed a perspective based on realism and knowledge of self that keeps Cryogenics and the rest of the Heresy Family grounded.
