

Owino Thorpe

My resume consist all my good quality's and talents as an up and coming new star' that's willing to strive for the best in the entertainment business, I will experiment new lines of self aspiration in the basic wonderful world of casting and performers development Canada. I plan to put my skills to the test and discuss professionalism with other cast performers that have different artistic views; about capturing the spot light on and off the cameras. My goal is to become an actor that has a signature persona in the entertainment industry. Challenges That I plan to face will be great conduct with clothing, pacific actions with moves that will make all colors brighten every scene and produce good quality movies that can intensify the audience and encourage production companies as well. I bring to the table motivation, organization, and accurate attention with my casting reputation, I know my start with your company as actra member will help both me and my agents succeed dearly in are developing lives as people and great performers in this diverse community.