

David G. Herczku

Objective:

To obtain as much knowledge about the business of entertainment and become a member in any which way and/or form possible, and enjoy doing it by learning and having as much fun as allowed.

Education:

University of Toronto
Honors B.A.
Business Certificate

About to complete mandatory ACTRA Membership Training intensive course

Experience:

Principal actor in an original series called "Varj"
November 2006

Secondary actor in short 'webisodes' – "Bobby"
August/September 2006

Principal actor in a U.K. "Mastercard" Commercial
November 2005

Actor in 10-minute Sheridan College Presentations
May 2006

Callbacks for Ford October 2005 and
Mazda April 2005 commercials

Hobbies/Interests:

Most recently helped to coordinate two film festivals in the city.

Worked with children with after-school activities.

Like to travel – I have been throughout Asia, South-East Asia, Middle East, Europe and North America, which helped me understand these different societies and another hobby of mine, cooking.

When overseas, I helped -with a group- in a relief effort to raise funds for all Tsunami victims, went to schools and communities throughout the area.

Active participant in a variety of sports, such as biking, baseball, rugby, Track & Field, hockey (cannot skate very well), soccer/football, etc.