Lisa Weiler is a multi-disciplinary artist, educator, choral conductor, ACTRA TORONTO (AM—18554) and CADA—Ontario member who completed her Masters in Dance at York University (2006). She also received a Bachelor of Education (2004) and a Bachelor of Honors in Music (Voice 2003) from the University of Western Ontario.

Weiler's innovative style, vivacity and passionate nature has earned her a number of roles in festivals and events across the GTA including Choreographic Marathon (2009 & 2010), Dance2Danse Festival (2010), Series 808 CPW (2009-2010) "Luminato" (2007), Dance Ontario's "Nuit blanche" (2010 & 2007), "Four Seasons Centre Show" (2008) as a dancer in the Sashar Zarif Dance Theatre. Weiler was also the choreographer for the music video "Stand-up!" performed by Vanessa Morgan and the cast of The Latest Buzz for the Family Channel, in addition to choreographing four episodes for the teen live action hit, season three of The Latest Buzz (2008).

Her involvement with renowned artists and producers such as Maxine Heppner, Janice Pomer, Rose Mary James, Elizabeth Young, Susan Cash, The Peggy Baker Dance Projects (2009), Summer School in Contemporary Dance with School of Toronto Dance Theatre (2008), The Canadian Contemporary Dance Theatre Teacher Intensive Training Programme (2009- present), and Con Moto Dance Projects (2009-present) continues to influence her growth as a performing artist.

She is currently a dance and vocal secondary teacher at Father John Redmond C.S.S & Regional Arts Centre, has a private vocal, piano and theory studio of music and was a dance instructor in the Physical Education and Health Department at the University of Toronto Ontario. Weiler also conducts and coordinates dance education workshops for Elementary, Secondary and post-secondary panels for certified and pre-service teachers in the Greater Toronto Area. Due to her passion for dance advocacy and education Weiler is the chair of the Dance Professional Learning Network (2009-present), and co-chair of Toronto Catholic Schools Dance Festival for the Toronto Catholic District School Board (2010-present).
