Irene was first noticed at age 16 in her church choir. It's no surprise then, that with her 4 octave vocal range, she gets asked to sing solo. Later, with her friend and musical partner Howard Forman, they form the Groove Kings, a classic R&B band that becomes as well known in Quebec as in the rest of Canada. Once again, Irene gets noticed, but this time it's Normand Brathwaite who unintentionally helps to launch her budding career...
