PROFESSIONAL SYNOPSIS

Profile:

Born on March 15, 1985 in the city of Toronto with a love of music bound to be a part of her future. At the age of four, fell in love with the attention received by her expressive and outgoing personality. With no fear of an audience at any size, in 1989 she portrayed the "Big Bad Wolf" in The Three Little Pigs at Canada's Wonderland. This began her love as a gifted actress/singer/dancer by 1993. She has portrayed many main role characters that require multi-talented performances each year throughout her youth. It continues to this day as she pursues a professional career in Theatre along with the knowledge of the technicalities of the theater. Amanda became an apprentice member of Actra in 2000. She recorded the singing voice of the cartoon character, "D.W.", for the Broadway production of Arthur. She has also had experience on a professional set as an extra during the television tapings of Big Wolf on Campus. Graduating from Riverdale High School this year, she plans on enrolling in the Professional Theatre program at John Abbott College, and wishes to apply to Ryerson University of Toronto to receive a degree in Theatre Arts.
