THE LAST FEW YEARS

I competed internationally in Alpine Ski Racing, traveling North America from the age of 13 until 1998 when I turned 19. I retired and thus started into business school at the University of Calgary. During my first year at University, I fell in love with the craft of acting and have been hooked ever since. I am now twenty-three and have been working in the industry ever since in almost every capacity in order to gain an understanding of how everything works. While continuing to excel in university, I have spent my summers working as an Actor, AD, Producer's Assistant, Casting Assistant, PA, Equipment Technician and doing a CFTPA production and managerial internship with Alberta Filmworks under the direction of Tom Cox, Doug MacLeod and Jordy Randall. I have also spent summers doing construction, treeplanting, traveling and playing in the outdoors like I love to do. I spent the summer of 2001 studying dramatic arts at the Neighborhood Playhouse in New York. I am completing my Bachelor of Commerce Degree in the spring of 2002 and will finally be able to dedicate all of my time to what I love to do. Making Movies...
